

CAMP INFORMATION/GUIDELINES

In Case of Emergency:

Camp John Speer: (423) 636-1366

Camp Chilhowee: (423) 983-7084

GUIDELINES

This week we will be living together as a family in a Christian community. Family life is based on love, trust, support and spending time together which creates a warm and caring atmosphere. Each of us as a member of the family is very important. In order to create this atmosphere, please, read, respect, and abide by these rules.

1. Arrive and leave at the appropriate times.
2. Attend the camp of your grade level.
3. Requests to be in a room/cabin with someone will be honored if possible. This request will need to be made before camp.
4. Your presence is important. Be on time to all scheduled activities, including meals.
5. You are important. Please participate in all camp activities.
6. This is a Church Camp. Dress appropriately. Dress will be monitored.
NO Short Shorts. NO Inappropriate Swimwear.
7. Be good stewards of the camp facilities. Keep things clean and do not deface the property. (This includes writing on beds, walls, etc.).
8. Separate housing is provided for males and females. In respect of person's rights to privacy, males are not allowed in female rooms/cabins and females are not allowed in male rooms/cabins.
9. Respect others rights of rest by keeping to the sleep schedule.
10. Jesus told us, "A new command I give: love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another." John 13:34. Let this be a guide for our living during camp.
11. Enjoy yourself and have a great week!

PARENTAL CONSENT and RELEASE OF LIABILITY – To Be Completed By Student's Parents or Legal Guardian

I give my child permission to participate in the event marked above with the Presbytery of East Tennessee, understanding that if my child does not comply with the guidelines set forth by the event leadership, they will be sent home at my expense. When I am not present, I am entrusting my child's care to another responsible adult, whom I expect to make wise decisions on my behalf when I am not available to do so. This permission includes traveling in a vehicle for medical purposes or for activities related to the event, such as, hayrides, transportation to/from hikes, etc. Knowing that the event director and attending chaperones will have my child's best interest and safety in mind, I hereby release the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, the Presbytery of East Tennessee, its member churches, the event director and adult chaperones from any legal liability concerning, but not limited to, any incident that results in injury, illness or death. I understand that in the case of any emergency, every effort will be made to contact me, but if I am not available or if decisions need to be made quickly for my child's well being, I defer these decisions to the adult closest to the situation.

CAMPER'S COVENANT AGREEMENT - To be Completed by the Camper

I have read and understand the camp guidelines. I am fully aware that a camp experience will require me to make personal sacrifices to which I may not be accustomed. Therefore, I hereby: 1. Realize that living as a group will require me to be responsible in my actions and display Christian love and patience toward all members of the group, both youth and leaders. 2. Realize the importance of all members of the group following a schedule and the guidelines and instructions of the leaders. 3. Agree to participate fully in all activities. 4. Agree to maintain an open mind and heart in the teachings of Christ and for the leadership of the Holy Spirit.
